

THANKSGIVING GATHERING

You are cordially invited to attend a
FREE Thanksgiving dinner.

Wednesday, November 23, 2016

All are welcome, with a special outreach extended to various groups / organizations including, but not limited to, the members of the military (past and present) and their families, elderly, homeless, disabled, family / women's / men's shelters, rehab facilities and people who simply seek companionship, great food and conversation.

We will be providing a complete Thanksgiving bountiful feast with all the traditional trimmings. The menu will include: turkey; stuffing; potatoes; gravy; buttered green beans and kernel corn; cranberry relish; fruit salad; pumpkin, cherry and apple pie; and, a variety of beverages. There will also be live musical entertainment during dinner.

This is an interfaith event sponsored by various churches within the Waukesha County community. Dinner will be hosted at Christ the King Lutheran Church in Delafield. Other sponsors include St. Joan of Arc and St. Catherine of Alexandria Catholic Churches, the Nashotah House Theological Seminary in addition to St. John's Northwestern Military Academy and Thrivent Financial.

- Location: Christ the King Lutheran Church
